C. G. Fuller Foundation

Mr. C. G. Fuller was born in Ohio and moved to Barnwell, South Carolina in the 1930's. Owing only a dump truck, Mr. Fuller entered the road construction business, by which he became very successful. By the time Mr. Fuller died in 1972 he had amassed considerable wealth.

Having no children of his own to inherit his fortune, Mr. Fuller created the C. G. Fuller Foundation. One of the purposes of the Foundation is to provide scholarships for worthy South Carolina students.

Mr. Fuller had not been able to attend college, yet he recognized the value of a college education. He therefore wanted to help other young people attend college, who would not be able to without assistance.

The criteria for receiving a scholarship are: a high school senior, a South Carolina resident, attendance at a South Carolina college or university, Adjusted Gross Income of $60,000 or less, a minimum score of 1100 on SAT or a minimum score of 24 on ACT. The scholarship is $1,250.00 per semester. It is automatically renewed for 4 years provided a cumulative 3.0 GPA is maintained.

The Foundation has also made substantial grants to Carolina Children's Home, Epworth Children's Home, Barnwell County Hospital, Barnwell County Library, Barnwell County Museum & Historical Board, Richland County Public Library and numerous other community grants.

Individual trustees of the Foundation are Clinton C. Lemon (son of Calhoun Lemon), Barnwell, South Carolina and Victor B. John, III (son of Victor B. John, Jr.) Columbia, South Carolina. Calhoun Lemon and Victor B. John, Jr. were business associates of Mr. Fuller. The corporate trustee is Bank of America, N. A., represented by Cindy Burton, Senior Vice President.
