FAITH

What part will you play?

* Events like Holy City Worship give students the chance to come together and reach out with the love of Christ and the message of hope to the city of Charleston.

Your journey is part of a larger story, and you have a unique role to play. We believe God has created each one of us to contribute our own chapter to His story. A story that we choose to celebrate in every aspect of our lives:

the big things and the small things and all the in-between things. At Charleston Southern, you'll be challenged to recognize your part and encouraged to participate in the larger story.

UNITED BY FAITH.

The Campus Ministries staff seeks to create a discipleship culture that allows students from all walks of life to engage with one another in activities they love.

vibrant economy bustling with professional and business opportunities — a wide-ranging catch-all of job categories that includes manufacturing, construction, lawyers, accountants, engineers, architects and many others. This isn't just a great place to go to school, it's a great opportunity to discover what's next.

FOOD GLORIOUS FOOD

You could eat at a different restaurant for every meal every day for four years and still not eat at every restaurant in Charleston. How's that for variety?

“My favorite thing in my time at CSU has been the community aspect within the student body—everyone just living life together.”
